Associated Press Correspondent Describes Clash Between French and Bulgarian Forces; Allies Holding Dangerous Position Under Fire.

By Associated Press.

FRANCE, HEADQUARTERS, Nov. 22. (By Courier to Salonika, Nov. 22, via Paris, Nov. 22.)—A sanguinary battle between the French and Bulgarians in the gorge of the Rapa river southeast of Sofia, has resulted thus far in the retirement of the French from a point north of Drenovo to the right bank of the Rapa. The French, however, are still holding the Rapa gorge, and the important bridgehead at Biharski, controlling the heights opposite Gradiste.

The Associated Press correspondent today visited the French post west of the Rapa bridgehead, which is defended by a strong natural position in the granite-walled gorge. This gorge, however, is exposed to artillery fire from the surrounding heights. Through it runs a narrow, rapid stream held by infantry.

Half an hour later the correspondent with a party of French officers watched the battle from the neighboring hills. Every detail was visible except during occasional periods of the lowering of mist from the hills.

Hostilities were opened with a severe artillery duel. From the point of observation flashes of flame and puffs of smoke could be seen, revealing the positions of guns on both sides of the Rapa river, which is joined by the Rapa a few miles north of Drenovo. Clouds of smoke from the bursting shells gave some idea of the result of the fire which the Bulgarians concentrated in an effort to dislodge the French from the Rapa gorge. Shrapnel was placed successfully between the gorge several times.

Soon the white of machine guns and the popping of rifle fire betrayed the position of the Bulgarian infantry. On the hill behind the gorge moving forces could be seen outlined against the sky. The French had been ordered to hold the position until they were relieved by the Bulgarian forces, which were to be relieved by the Bulgarian forces, which were to be relieved by the Bulgarian forces.

A striking feature of the campaign in Serbia is its utter unlikelihood. In France, trenches are constructed for only temporary use in actual battle. The broken country facilitates the employment of tactical skill, in which the French seem to be superior to the Bulgarians, notwithstanding their lack of familiarity with the country.

Neither battlefield nor encampment most resemble in the least those in France. The soldiers are camped in tents in the open plains as the Bulgarians thus far have not employed airplanes. The camps are changed frequently to keep pace with the movement of the battle line.

Artillerymen have for the first time since the beginning of the war often have opportunity to actually see the mark at which they are aiming. The famous French three-inch guns firing almost with the rapidity of machine guns inflict extraordinary havoc on the Bulgarians.

French soldiers are enjoying the opportunity presented by the lack of Bulgarian aircraft guns of flying low over the positions of their opponents and actually photographing them with such detail as to reveal the numbers and location of the hostile forces.

The Serbians in the north are said to be concentrating on the historic Kosovo plain, with the idea of attempting an offensive in the direction of Belgrade. It is reported that six divisions will detach from the plain by way of the Katschinsk and Kotechou passes. The Bulgarians are being withdrawn hastily from the Pelop region. A decisive battle is looked for.

HOME IN ENGLAND MAY HOLD OUT

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The latest news from the Balkans has revived hope in England that Montenegro may hold out long enough to enable the French and British forces to effect a junction with the Serbians. The Rome and London editions of Serbia have received reports of a recent Serbian victory north of Belgrade, and these victories are neither doubts nor are there are doubts as to their importance.

It is now believed Allied forces which may take refuge on Greek territory are hardly likely to be subjected to attack from the rear. The most serious indication as to the present attitude of Greece is contained in remarks made by M. Rallis, Greek minister in London.

HARVARD SURGEONS AND NURSES - DR. CHEEVER

INVOLVES GERMAN ATTACHE

Government Declares He Directed Supplying of Munitions to Allies.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Captain R. Toy Ed, German naval attaché, was the directing head under whom was spent $750,000 in chartering and supplying neutral steamers with coal and provisions for German submarines in the Atlantic and Pacific in August, 1915, the government formally charged, and asserted that it was prepared to prove the charge. In the opening today of the trial on charges of conspiracy of Dr. Karl Benz, managing director of the Hamburg-American line and three of his subordinates.

In the case of Dr. Karl Benz, United States district attorney in charge of the case, in so declaring asserted that the entire sum was spent under the personal direction of Captain Toy Ed and that from $500,000 to $600,000 of the amount was spent in San Francisco in chartering vessels and obtaining supplies for the German submarines, Leipzig and perhaps the Dresden.

William Band, counsel for the defense admitted that the defendants had chartered and supplied 12 ships which sailed from Germany, America, and other ports for the relief of German submarines. In so doing, Mr. Band asserted, the defendants acted upon orders received by cable from Germany.

SHOOTS TO FRIGHTEN BOYS.

PERRY MAN DROPS DEAD

John S. Moss is Victim of Heart Failure; Shot Dies as He Fires

into Air.

John Stephen Moss, 70 years old, a well known resident of the county, dropped dead last night in the yard in the rear of his home at Perryopolis while firing into the air to frighten some mischievous children away from his premises. His wife was in the house at the time, and hearing the report of the gun, rushed out of the house in time to see her husband fall to the ground. She feared he had shot himself, but an examination showed he had died of heart failure.

The body was carried into the house by John Hall and other neighbors. It is said that a number of boys of the neighborhood had been playing pranks about the Moss home, disregarding warning to leave the premises. Mr. Moss, it is stated, picked up his gun and going into the yard fired into the air to frighten the youngsters away. As the gun was exploded he was stricken with heart failure.

Mr. Moss was a farmer. He had resided in Perryopolis for the past twenty years and at the same time kept up his farm in Washington township. He was active in politics in the community of Perryopolis. He was a member of the Pennsylvania township school board and was at one time a justice of the peace in Washington township. He was once director of the poor and house of employment of Fayette county. He was a member of the Christian Church at Perryopolis for a number of years.

Mr. Moss was born on July 15, 1845, the son of William and Elizabeth Fisher Moss. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Phoebe Lyth, daughter of the late Robert and Sarah Lyth. She died on August 27, 1902. His second wife was Miss Ida E. Newcomer. They were married September 15, 1904. Three daughters by the first marriage are: Mrs. Arthur A. Barger of Hubbard, O.; Mrs. Allan Lutz and Mrs. Alva Sturgis of Humili Station, Washington county. Mr. Moss was the last of a family of 11 children.

Funeral services for the late Mr. Moss will be held at 2 P. M. tomorrow at the Christian Church at Perryopolis, Thursday at 2 P. M. interment in Mount Washington cemetery.

KILLS HIMSELF

Perryopolis Man Returns Home to Die by Shooting.

Returning home Saturday night about 9 o'clock, George Hutton of Perryopolis, 45 years old, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. Mr. Hutton had been away from home during the day and on his return home seemed to be greatly worried. After conversing with his parents, he went out into the back yard and fired a bullet through his head before his relatives could prevent him from taking his life. He died almost instantly.

No motive could be assigned for his rash act. Deceased was a painter by trade and made his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton of Perryopolis. Funeral services were held from the family residence yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in Mount Washington cemetery.

Judge Van Swearingen Refuses to Set Aside Verdict of Jury Which Awarded $25,000 Verdict for Death of Wife; Discretion Cases.

Special to The Courier.

UNIONTOWN, Nov. 22.—Four opinions and five decrees in divorce were handed down in court by Judge J. G. Van Swearingen Tuesday morning when court opened for the regular weekly routine.

In the case of William Kramark against the Pennsylvania Railroad company, in which the plaintiff sued to recover $25,000 from the defendant company for the death of his wife, who was killed by a train on the defendant's road at Uniontown, and in which case the jury has heard the case a few weeks ago returned a verdict for the defendant, Judge Van Swearingen refused a new trial, holding that the verdict of the jury was proper under the evidence submitted at the trial.

In the case of Little N. Story of Uniontown against her husband, Matthew Story, in which the plaintiff asked that the defendant be required to furnish the plaintiff with money to pay counsel fees to carry on her divorce proceeding against her husband, and for her support and that of her child, Judge Van Swearingen made an order directing the defendant to pay the plaintiff $125 per month for counsel fees and $30 per month for the support of herself and child during the litigation.

In the case of the Commonwealth against David Silverman, a rule was granted on the commonwealth to seek treatment of the defendant, which has been conducted with success during the last two winters, and which will soon be opened this year. N. C. Miller, who represents State College, will hold a meeting with the prospective students tonight.

Mr. Miller states that these classes will be made as practicable as possible and the instruction received will be of much value to the students in their work and as a foundation for future study if they have opportunity to go into the subject further. The instructors will be selected from practical shop men.

The expense to the men who compose the class will be nominal. For the last two years only a part of the expense of securing an instructor were charged to the class, the instructor's salary and other expenses being paid by the state.

SHE KNEW WHY

Scholar Says VanBuren Was Deceit; Had Hard Times.

Principal Surges of the Rowwood school in Nicholson township, in examining a class in history in that school recently asked what President of the United States was born in 1782 and what was his politics. Several gave the correct answer as to his name, but only one correct answer as to his politics.

Edna, the 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Duin, asked how she knew that VanBuren was a Democrat, replied that she knew from the fact that there was a picnic and hard times during his administration, and that panics and hard times always followed the election of Democratic Presidents.

EMPLOYERS ARE PREPARING FOR COMPENSATION

Law Requires That They Take Out Liability Insurance
by January 1.

THE AGENTS ARE ON THE JOB

Seek to Convince Manufacturers That Stock Company Policies are to be Preferred to the State's Insurance;
Big Concerns to Carry Their Own.

Under the provisions of the new Pennsylvania Workmen's Compensation Act, which becomes effective on January 1, every employer of labor in the state will have to take out compensation insurance. Local employers are already making plans to comply with the law and indications are that most of them will avail themselves of the greater protection afforded by the stock company insurance.

Insurance men declare that the kinds of compensation provided by the state fund will not be popular. The state's plan is unsatisfactory, they declare.

Under the stock company, by the payment of yearly premiums computed upon the size of the payroll, the employer is protected against damage suits brought by his employees. One instance is that of a local concern employing about 12 men which is protected from liability by the payment of $5 a year.

Large concerns like the H. C. Feltz Coko Company and W. J. Rainey will likely establish insurance funds under the mutual plan. Any concern which can satisfy the Compensation Board that it is financially able to conduct a mutual compensation fund, may do so. Self insurance blanks of the latter kind, are to be sent out early next week from Harrisburg.

The state primary at Harrisburg is also preparing 200,000 digests of the Compensation act, which explain its provisions, tell what to do after an accident and give the rulings of the board.

Any concern which neglects or refuses to accept the provisions of the compensation act make themselves responsible under the law for injury to employees and are denied the right of common law defense.

Inquiry among employers today elicited the information that some employers had not investigated the matter thoroughly as yet, though they admitted that the time was growing short in which to do so. One large employer intimated that he would likely take up stock company insurance though he had not investigated the proposition as thoroughly as he wanted to as yet.

CARNIVAL IN WRECK

Con T. Kennedy Show People Killed

When Train Crashed.

The Con T. Kennedy Carnival Company which played Connelville about a year ago during the Bremen's convention, was in a bad wreck six miles west of Columbus, Ga., yesterday, when the train collided with a regular passenger train. Six persons are known to have been killed, 18 others are missing, and 36 were injured.

There were about 400 people in the carnival train. The impact of the collision demolished both engines and caused several of the cars to turn over. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kempf, the former of "Whites" and the latter of "Blacks" were in one of the front cars. The child was thrown through a window, escaping injury, but her parents were imprisoned beneath a car and burned to death.

TO SELL 100,000 SEALS

That is the Aimment for Fayette

County This Year.

Fayette county will make an effort to dispose of 100,000 Red Cross Christmas seals at the Christmas season this year. Last year the county fell down in this great charitable movement hence special efforts will be made this year to reach the mark set. Uniontown is the distributing center and the various drug and stationery stores in Connelville again will have the seals for sale.

The proceeds of the sale of Red Cross seals goes to the Anti-Tuberculosis Society of Pennsylvania and the money realized in this county goes for relief work in this section, so that the more seals that are sold the more good can be done in the fight against the White Plague in Fayette.

The seals may be placed on the back of mail matter, not on the face.

Mr. Coffee Bean

Seems to be having a hard time of it these days.
He has been found out. Some coffee concerns have tried to rid him of caffeine, a powerful, habit-forming drug but without full success and in so doing have partially destroyed his only redeeming feature, pleasant taste.

Coffee is becoming more and more unpopular with thinking people everywhere. They are finding out that its drug, caffeine, is a frequent cause of headache, nervousness, biliousness and various other ills.

The point is—can you afford to risk health and happiness for a few cups of coffee? The wise thing is to quit coffee and use —the pure food-drink.

Made only of wheat and a bit of molasses, Postum has a rich flavor much like mild Java coffee, yet contains no harmful element.

Postum comes in two forms: The original Postum Cereal requires boiling. Instant Postum is soluble—a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water makes a delicious drink instantly. They are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

Ten days' trial of Postum has shown many the sure way out of coffee troubles.

FOR ACID STOMACHS USE MAGNESIA

The almost universal use of magnesia by physicians and specialists in the treatment of stomach troubles is due to the fact that it neutralizes the excessive acid and thus stops food fermentation—the direct cause of nearly all stomach trouble. Of the many forms of magnesia, such as oxides, chlorides, carbonates, sulphates, etc.,
the one now supplied in either powdered or tablet form and especially recommended for acid stomachs is hydrated magnesia, a teaspoonful of which in a little warm water immediately after eating will instantly neutralize the excessive acid, stop formation, thus ensure painless normal digestion. This ensures painless normal digestion. The five grain tablets are the most convenient for physicians and travelers to carry and two tablets are equivalent to a teaspoonful of the powder. Take two of the tablets (with or without water) or a teaspoonful of the powder in a quarter of a glass of water after each meal.
Stomach sufferers and dyspeptics who follow this plan and avoid the use of peppermint, charcoal, soda, nitric, drugs and medicines are astonished to find that the stomach, relieved of the irritating acid and gas, soon regains its normal tone, and can do its work alone without the help of artificial digestants. —Adv.

Reliable Laxative Relieved This Baby

Child Was Badly Constituted Until Mother Tried Simple Remedy.

In spite of every care and attention to diet, children are very apt to become constipated, a condition responsible for many ill after life unless promptly relieved.

Mrs. C. W. Wilson, of Shelbyville,
Tenn., had trouble with her baby boy,
Woodrow, until she heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. She writes, "I can safely say Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy of its kind so surely. Little Woodrow was very badly constipated and we could find nothing that gave relief until we tried

DOCTORS USING AMOLOX WITH GREAT SUCCESS

This remarkable letter, coming from a prominent physician engaged in active practice for over 25 years, proves the merit of this wonderful new Remedy.

I have used Amolox in four different cases with excellent results. All showed marked improvement from the start. Two apparently are cured, the skin being free from scales and redness, and perfectly normal.

I consider Amolox a Remedy of great merit. I know of nothing in the modern text-books that equals it in therapeutic value.

Pimples on the face, blackheads,
Acne and all minor skin troubles

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 23, 1915.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

After 24 years John L. Davis has returned to his old position as associate editor of The Daily Courier. He will have practically full charge of the weekly edition, in connection with certain other special work in this office. Captain Davis was associated with H. E. Stodol in the publication of The Weekly Courier from 1891 to 1893.

There will be no other changes in the staff of The Courier, any statements to the contrary notwithstanding, and the editorial direction and executive management will continue as heretofore in the hands of Henry E. Stodol.

ADVICE AND ACTION.

The tentative proposition of certain promoters to bring a rolling mill and other desirable industries to Conneltsville is now under consideration and investigation. In the meantime, the local press has been free with its advice concerning the wisdom of dealing with promoters in any form. The Uniontown Standard is particularly emphatic on this point. It says:

"The Conneltsville newspapers are devoting some space and the Chamber of Commerce some attention to the proposition of securing two factories by providing free sites and putting up $25,000. This is foolish. Any town which is so desperately in need of factories that it would for a moment consider these offers must be in a bad way indeed. It is a small factory which cannot do $25,000 worth of business in one year. Surely one year's business could not be the determining factor in the matter of location unless things were absolutely even."

This proposition is not offered to Uniontown, for reasons best known to the promoters, but it is certain that the location is not as desirable as that of Conneltsville. The Standard may be speaking in good faith, but if the proposition were before the people of Uniontown, and the latter were in position to take it up, the chances are that the press of that town would be unanimous in booming it.

Concerning the rolling mill proposition, we have only to repeat what we have already said that the price is cheap enough to pay for a going industry of the character mentioned, that is one with its connections, but that Conneltsville should close its eyes until the whole matter was thoroughly investigated and unqualifiedly approved by a committee of business men having the confidence of the community; and further, that stock should be given for all contributions. Conneltsville may make toward establishing the company here, whether they be in cash or kind.

PROTECTION FOR BY-PRODUCTS.

The growing scarcity of dyestuffs is beginning to be felt in Conneltsville. This lack is one which American industry and enterprise will soon supply. It seems that we have all the raw materials in abundance, and strange to say the chief base of all synthetic dyes is coal tar, a by-product of coking. Continuing on this fact, the Pittsburgh Gazette Times says:

"Perhaps the greatest benefit derived by America from the struggle in Europe will be found, not in the vast supplies of raw and manufactured materials sold to the warring countries, but in the things that she has been forced to do for herself which previously she depended upon other people to do for her. The lack of dyes, for instance, which manufacturers and merchants in this country have found to be such a handicap since losing the supply from Germany, whence nearly all the reliable dyeing materials used here have been obtained in the past, has stimulated American chemists to study and build up the dyemaking industry. Already considerable progress has been made along this line, and eventually no doubt Americans will produce as good dyes as any nation can boast."

Another industry of prime importance in the Pittsburgh district, which has been seriously handicapped since the outbreak of hostilities and which has found a way out, is the manufacture of glass. In the past American manufacturers have been wont to obtain certain plastic clays from Germany for the manufacture of the refractory, or pots, in which the glass is melted. In all probability this was done simply because Germany had developed the fact that her clays would do the business and so no effort was made to obtain the clays at home. Now, however, beneath the spur of necessity, an inquiring eye has been cast about our own country with the somewhat surprising result that clays superior in quality to those of Germany have been discovered and adapted to the purpose.

"In a report issued by the Department of Commerce it is announced that the Pittsburgh Laboratory of the United States Bureau of Standards, working in conjunction with the clay-pot industry, has brought to a successful conclusion a series of experiments which will place the American clay makers in a position entirely independent of the foreign supply. So conclusive and satisfactory were the tests, it is stated, that the mixture prepared from American clays was found to render better service than the mixtures made from German clays alone or with German and American clays blended. The work inaugurated by these experiments is ready to put into practical use on a large scale and it is declared by the director of the Bureau of Standards that the value of the result achieved by this one investigation for American industry far surpasses the entire amount the government has expended in the clay products work since the time of its organization."

After we have provided the plants for the manufacture of these materials the new industries will have to be provided with tariff protection in order to prevent them from being ruined by the foreign manufacturers after the war is over. The Democratic party does not believe in Protection. The next administration must be Republican.

A SOUTH SIDE VIADUCT.

The need of a new route to the South Side has been brought to the attention of the Conneltsville public by the necessity of circumventing the traffic, but it may be forgotten quite as quickly after the circumstances change.

The suggestion of a viaduct is the only feasible one, but whether such a viaduct should spring from Prospect street or further westward along Willis road, perhaps at Carnegie avenue, remains to be determined by actual survey and estimates. On the South Side the viaduct should land at probably Vine street connecting with Crawford avenue and Trump lane. Such a bridge across Conneltsville would not be as long or as costly as the Willis road bridge.

The question is one of sufficient importance to have an engineer's report on, and we commend the matter to the consideration of the new City Council.

The publishers of European newspapers have their troubles besides which our own seem childish. In the beligerent countries the editor never knows what news he is going to be permitted to print after he is allowed to get it, and he never knows what moment his newspaper may be suppressed by the government, which exercises that power if the tone of the paper doesn't suit the officials. There are lots of people in this country who are strong for that kind of Government every time their newspaper says something which offends them, but if they had such despotism, without war conditions, they would soon tire of it.

The European war is now central in the public mind where it started, it would be fine if it could be finished there.

The announcement that 24% of the pupils of the Fayette county common schools are under the age of 14 is not as far advanced for their age as they should be, is not necessarily a reflection upon the intelligence of the community. It is due to a large foreign population which has been slow to take proper advantage of our educational system but which will now be compelled to do so. The foreign children are not as a rule stupid. Some of them are exceptionally bright. The retardation question is one which we imagine time will cure.

Lathrop's steel mill has been threatened with dynamite, too. Conneltsville's industrial plants have no war order and consequently no fear of trouble from foreign sources. There are some idle plants here, however, which the public at least will be willing to take a chance on if they can be started up.

The Allies propose to bottle Greece. Bottled goods keep well, but bottled nations are likely to turn sour and spoil.

Dick Combskey, the high-diver, seems to be able to jump from high places like a flying squirrel. He never misses an opportunity of doing it. Why he has not turned out an aviator is due to but one explanation. The flying machine is a water wagon.

It is predicted that with proper sanitation the typhoid fever will soon become a memory. That garbage ordinances should never have been voted down.

Stromboli has joined the war. The Chumpton farmer who was determined to jump a moving train going out of Conneltsville landed in the hearse. That's where every train-jumper jumps for.

The first words of the unfortunate Maryland girl, who was confined for 12 years and cruelly treated, conveyed her desire to have an apple. Apples were probably scarce with her.

The boys of Company D are drilling hard to bring themselves up to regular standards, and there is no reason why they should not succeed. It's no great trick; it's just hard and faithful endeavor.

The Courier consists of twelve pages today. It is getting expansive under the influence of these prosperous times and the approach of the holiday season. The Courier has always been a firm believer in the doctrine of expansion.

The Fayette county teachers are trying hard to break away from that ancient rule which sends them to the county institute at Uniontown the week before the holidays when if they live close enough to Conneltsville they can buy it better here.

The 13-year old Greensburg girl who got married must keep right on going to school according to the decision of the school authorities. The case presents some new questions in public school management, and the decision of the Greensburg board is open to much argument.

Battleships

By GEORGE FITCH,
Author of "At Good Old Seward."

Battleships are the dumbest hats of the nations. Unfortunately, as soon as a nation doubles its hat, another nation doubles and it then becomes necessary to double back. Battleships are built by nations in order to give other nations but peace. A 25,000-ton battleship with guns that throw steel shells as large as house-hoofs ought to save any nation and would if it were not for the fact that the other nations are busy building larger ton battleships with guns that could load up a steam boiler and shoot it forty miles with a favorable wind. The nations are so busy racing each other that they have lost sight of the fact that the world is a small place and that a new dreadnaught of record-breaking size has been completed, it has become a scarenaught and must be completely overhauled and it is necessary to work twenty-four hours a day on new battleships to get them into the water before they are entirely obsolete. Battleships are built of steel and have sixteen-inch impenetrable sides like U. S. Senators who have bought it. They have mortars which can shoot and could blow off the top of a tolerable sized mountain with one mighty broadside. They are built of steel and could blaze away at them all day without stopping the Captain's dinner. In fact, they would be entirely invulnerable if it were not for handbars, matches, mud-scows, sparrows, crossed wires, careless mechanics and spontaneous combustion. Because of these things, for instance, are more fragile than sick babies and a naval officer has to study forty years before he is considered competent to take one of them ten miles out to sea and shoot a few rounds at a floating whale.

They could blow off the top of a tolerable sized mountain.

Battleships are extremely fatal in the same directions in which cheap abortions are fatal. The mortality caused by a battleship is about equal on both sides. Lying on one of them is like riding over a curdery road on a load of nitro-glycerine. It may or may not explode. We have little knowledge of what a fleet of Dreadnaughts would do to each other, but we know distressingly well what they can do to themselves. In the present war, for instance, the best plan would be for the quarrelling nations to rotate crews, but exchanging battleships, who you need could then be kept separated and yet the carnage inflicted on the enemy would in time be sufficiently terrible to satisfy the most bloodthirsty people.

Get Out of Jail.

Leslie Garrett of Mount Pleasant, an automobile mechanic, was released from the Greensburg Jail by direction of court. He served three months' imprisonment charged by A. W. Wislizer of Pittsburgh with the alienation of his wife's affections.

Licensed to Wed.

John E. Shives and Ruth McClintock, both of Conneltsville; George M. Kauter and Grace E. Krieger, both of Stauffer, were granted marriage licenses in Greensburg yesterday.

FIRST DOSE

Ends Digestion, Heartburn, or Gas on Stomach.

The question is to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Tonoline Tablets.

People with weak stomachs should take Tonoline Tablets occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour flatus, gas on stomach, or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach, and besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with numerous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking Tonoline Tablets.

Go to your druggist and get a 11 box of Tonoline Tablets and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. Tonoline tabs freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Tonoline Tablets cost $1.00 for a 15 days' treatment. At druggists or mailed by American Proprietary Co., Houston, Mass.

For sale by A. A. Clarke, Connelville; Lovers' Drug Store, Scottsboro; A. J. Frost, Monongahela; L. M. Nemon, Dunbar.—Adv.

Hacking Coughs

"For Hacking Coughs that rob you of your sleep till your system becomes so run down that you are in grave danger of Pneumonia or Consumption, the kind that almost tear you to pieces, that make your head ache, your throat sore and inflamed, take

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

It soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, stops the tickling in the throat, and by its tonic effect enables you to throw off the disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is quite different from the ordinary cough medicine, for it not only soothes but also heals, so that the affected parts are restored to a healthy condition and the danger of a future attack is removed. I firmly believe that it is the best and most reliable preparation ever produced for coughs and colds."

WHAT TO DO WHEN NERVES GO WRONG

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

Men and women who suffer from weak nerves, who tire easily, can't sleep, have brain lac, low vitality, general nervousness, strength, dulled ambition, lack of will power, or any of those symptoms that so surely arise from poor, unsteady, unstringing nerves, or nerve force run low, should try taking a little Mergal with their meals a few days and note results. (This preparation is the greatest finger-tip stimulant and nerve builder ever known for putting the good old "nerp," ambition, courage and great vital energy into a tired, run-down and shattered nervous system.)

"Mergal is a test worth trying. The next time you feel tired, blue, or when your nerves are fairly crying out at a Mergal tablet. Then wait for just ten minutes, and see results. Mergal seems to set straight to the nerve cells and starts work the minute it reaches them. It brings a ten-minute change from that awful dull, weak, lazy, don't give-a-hang feeling to brightness, strength, clear headedness and courage. It calms and strengthens the nerves of people who get the "jumps" and dreads and gives them peace, power and tremendous reserve energy.

Mergal is absolutely harmless, contains no drugs or habit-forming drugs, and is always safe, easy, pleasant and efficient. The Laurey Drug Company in Connelville and vicinity sell it in large boxes—in tablets to a package—on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction, or money back.—Adv.

The Kangaroo.
In the course of a long stay in the interior of Victoria, Australia, J. G. O'Donoghue gathered conclusive evidence, which he presents in the Victorian Naturalist, that the kangaroo, when hard pressed on a long pursuit, throws her young one out of her pouch. He says the young kangaroo is "sent spinning from the pouch as the mother, by her enormous leaps, imparts to it a more or less vertical motion."

"Gets-It" for Corns, SURE as Sunrise!

Any Corn, With "Gets-It" on It, Is an Absolute "Goner!"

Yes, it's the simplest thing in the world to get rid of a corn—just use "Gets-It," the world's greatest corn-killer. Really, it's almost a pleasure to have corns just to see them come off with "Gets-It." It just loosens the corn from the flesh, easily, and then makes it come "clean off." 48 hours ends corns for keeps. It makes the use of tape, corn-removing machines, irritating salves, knives, scissors, and razors really look ridiculous. Get rid of those corns quickly, surely, painlessly—just easily—with "Gets-It." For warts and bunions, too. It's the 20th century way. "Gets-It" is sold by all druggists, 25¢ a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Connelville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by A. A. STEEL AND DYE STUFFS

"Gets-It" Puts Your Feet in Clover.

The Corporation is Making Its By-Products Pay.
A writer in the United States Engineer, who has made an investigation of the subject, asserts that the United States Steel Corporation is doing better in its miscellaneous products than is generally believed. In this connection particular reference is made to the coke by-products and the production of oil. The Corporation has been written about the American dye industry, and the opportunity of placing it upon a substantial basis, but few of those writers who have been so voluble in their remarks on this subject have given the United States Steel Corporation the credit which it deserves for giving this industry a hand upon which to work. In 1905 this company sent experts to Germany to study the methods that were used there, and since that time their product has compared very favorably with the best. In 1914 the miscellaneous products of the United States Steel Corporation were over $11,000,000. Not all of these were obtained from coke products, but there was a goodly proportion of them. The company has increased its coke output and with the tremendous demand for these same products in the manufacture of dye will probably find at the end of the year that this has been a source of considerable revenue to the company, a revenue which in other years has been practically negligible.

Pennsylvania Man Gets Quick Remedy for His Long Suffering Stomach.

Henry F. Curry of the Hotel Bartlett at Cambridge Springs, Pa., suffered most desperately from ailments of the stomach and digestive tract for years. He spent a fortune in the pursuit of health.

At last he happened to discover Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. He found relief quickly. Mr. Curry wrote: "I have spent thousands of dollars for doctors and medicine and hardly got temporary relief, and before I took your medicine I was about discouraged. But after taking your medicine I got great relief. My mental and physical suffering had been so bad that I had to resort to morphine, and even with that I did not get much relief. Your remedy helped me wonderfully. I have a good appetite, sleep well, and have gained weight."

3702 Koper St., Tacoma, Philadelphia, Pa.—"My baby had eczema. It was like deep cracks and then it would weep and get a hard surface on it. She was awful to look at. "She was a year old before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I applied the Ointment and let it on five minutes, then washed with the Soap. The eczema was gone in a few months." (Signed) Mrs. M. J. Jagan, November 7, 1914.

A SCENE FROM "THE BIRTH OF A NATION."

BROADWAY THEATRE.

"MRS. PLUM'S PRODIGY"—The Broadway Universal Company presents "Mrs. Plum's Prodigy," a comedy drama, starring Mrs. Plum, today at the Broadway Theatre in the five act comedy drama, "Mrs. Plum's Prodigy." This is the first picture this day has appeared in and it is said she made a great success. There are men who are clever at acting on the screen; there are men who can produce pictures; there are men whose talents enable them to write brilliant scenarios; but there are few who can do all three. Al Christie, who wrote and produced "Mrs. Plum's Prodigy," is one of these exceptional men. Though he seldom appears in the films himself, it is not because he lacks ability, but because he hates to take himself so seriously. When he needs a new face for some very important part, he will go on for a bit and he does in this film.

In "Mrs. Plum's Prodigy," the star of "Mrs. Plum's Prodigy," Mr. Christie found a most adaptable and charming photo player. The English comedienne had never played for the screen before but she was so responsive to every suggestion of Mr. Christie and was so enthusiastic in every scene, that he asked to do that the best production went down like a hot iron. It was written and produced in eleven days and Christie did both.

Helen Holmes is the star in a railroad thriller, "The Battle of the Clouds," a two act drama, starring Helen Holmes. A thrilling action taken from the experience of a railroad engineer who succeeded in saving a train from a collision. Helen Holmes, Allen Howell is the star today in the merry comedy, "The Battle of the Clouds." The film is in love with her face, it is in love with her hair, it is in love with her eyes, it is in love with her voice, it is in love with her every move. "The Battle of the Clouds" is a Galt film, a two act drama, being the first of its kind. Tomorrow, the greatest of all pictures, "The Birth of a Nation," in its first showing. The film is in love with the famous Henry Watkiss, father of the Duke of Devonshire, and a distinguished earl of twenty-five.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION"—The Birth of a Nation, the picture which has been the talk of the town for the last few days, is shown at the Colonial Theatre. The picture is a two act drama, starring Helen Holmes. A thrilling action taken from the experience of a railroad engineer who succeeded in saving a train from a collision. Helen Holmes, Allen Howell is the star today in the merry comedy, "The Battle of the Clouds." The film is in love with her face, it is in love with her hair, it is in love with her eyes, it is in love with her voice, it is in love with her every move. "The Battle of the Clouds" is a Galt film, a two act drama, being the first of its kind. Tomorrow, the greatest of all pictures, "The Birth of a Nation," in its first showing. The film is in love with the famous Henry Watkiss, father of the Duke of Devonshire, and a distinguished earl of twenty-five.

The first scene in "The Birth of a Nation" showing the War President in Lincoln's study the call for 75,000 volunteers. Around him are his cabinet heads and private secretaries. After the deed was done and the attending company departed, he slowly turned his face in his hands as if in prayer.

Another view of Lincoln's character is exhibited in his granting of a pardon. At this scene opens, the second act, uniformed diplomatic representatives are being received by the President. They then depart and he turns to a plain middle-aged woman dressed in a simple black who had been awaiting a hearing. She tries to speak to him, but he gently raises her up and talks to her, reads her petition and signs the paper granting to her the life of her son.

After the Appomattox surrender the leader of Congress calls with a proposal to deal harshly with the South for its rebellion. "I shall treat them as if they had never been away," is Lincoln's gentle answer. Then, two or three days later, comes the awful tragedy in Ford's Theatre, Washington, when Southern hopes of emancipation are dashed by the assassin's bullet. That great and terrible scene is reproduced in the play to the minutest historical detail. Mr. Holmes, the tragedy of the great President, has been widely commended for the speedily, dignity and pathos of his performance.

"The Birth of a Nation" comes to the Colonial for an engagement of one week with matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday, beginning Monday, November 22.

"THE CHRISTIAN"—The first performance here of Hall Caine's "The Christian" in the form of photo drama will be on Thanksgiving Day, matinee and night, at the Colonial Theatre, when it comes from a two months engagement at the Chestnut Street Opera House at Philadelphia.

The Vitaphone-Debut Company, who were responsible for this version should logically be so, it is comparatively only a short time ago, that this play at the Globe. Now to Miss Dawn, strong situation and powerful dramatic construction are the two conspicuous assets. "The Heart of Jennifer," by Edith Barnard Deland is the latest Famous Players Film Company contribution to the Paramount program. The photograph presents a situation in which a big financier finds himself starting into ruin, with the assistance of Welton, another money power, offered him on condition that his daughter Jennifer, marry another. To this bargain Jennifer refuses to accede and she and her father leave for the wilds to liberate themselves from the society to which they cannot rightfully belong. The story is intensely interesting and Miss Dawn is surrounded by an admirable cast, including James Kirkwood and other star screen players. "The Heart of Jennifer" is an episode of the Hazards of Helen, featuring Helen Holmes, is also being presented. Disguised as a mailman two years ago aboard an express car, overpowered the express men and stole a valuable package being forwarded to Arlington. Helen sees the crooks jumping from the car and detectives are sent to track the thieves down. To avoid being captured the thieves get aboard a car and cut it loose from the main, and after many thrilling adventures, they are captured by Helen who holds them up at the point of a pistol. Made is being furnished by Kitzler's orchestra.

THE AIRCADE.

"THE SENSATIONAL LADY"—In the George Kiehn photo drama, "The Sensational Lady," starring Irene Fenwick, had Bob Nelson a young attorney been less virile in nature, and not quite so strenuous in his methods, Amy Cary, young, charming and rich, might today be married to the son of a man who, a vice president of a gas company in which she held a controlling interest, plotted to enrich himself at her expense by unloading on the company an unworkable piece of machinery. The resulting developments are full of interest.

As Amy Cary, Irene Fenwick has splendid opportunity to display the talent that has enabled her to attain rank amongst the foremost of American actresses. This masterpiece of film drama is to be offered as the leading feature at Arcade Theatre Tuesday, November 23.

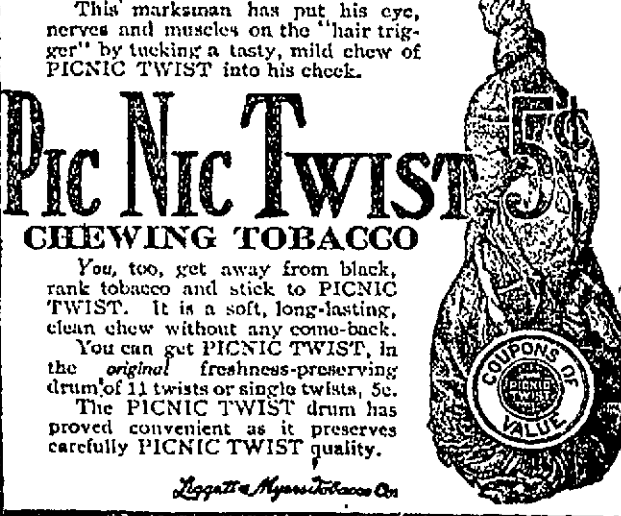

"The Sensational Lady" is a Kiehn drama, written by Owen Davis and released through the Kiehn-Edition Feature Service.

Fox features on Thanksgiving Day Dorothy Bernard in the "Little Cypres" and the "San Diego Expedition," directed from the Strand Theatre, N. Y.

Skyscrapers

By GEORGE FITCH.
 Author of "At Good Old Slaw."

Skyscrapers are indigenous to the American south and are found nowhere else. They are regarded with great contempt in Europe, because they are inefficient, like presidents and capitalists of industry. But there is a suspicion that Europe seems all these useful articles, principally because American thought of them first.

The skyscraper was invented in Chicago about twenty-nine years ago.

It was discovered that by constructing a twenty-story steel skeleton, sticking two or three stories into the ground, and draping the rest with an overskirt of brick, stone or terra-cotta, a very useful building could be produced. The first great skyscraper was the Masonic Temple in Chicago. It is twenty-nine stories high and was once the wonder of the world. Nowadays New Yorkers frequently stumble over it while looking for really tall buildings.

Skyscrapers are now built in one, two, three, four and five dozen story sizes. In New York the most common sizes are out of style, and are being torn down to make room for really high buildings. The tallest skyscraper in the world is the Woolworth building in New York, with fifty stories, while the city is also threatened with a 100-story building from the top of which the Goddess of Liberty will look like a shop girl on a dry goods box.

Our Christmas Stocks Are Ready

They had their premier opening this week, and every department is now in a position to give you tangible suggestions of things for Christmas gifts.

We can tell you of hundreds and hundreds of little articles which would be suitable for gifts to different persons, but how much more satisfactory it is to see them, and judge of their merits oneself.

Give yourself plenty of time to select gift things. You will find it a pleasant task.

If you are planning to come to the city some time during the next few weeks, to do your Christmas shopping, come as early as possible. Stocks are now in prime condition, but each day takes away some of the most desirable things. But there is plenty here for every one. The important thing is to have first selection, which is naturally best.

highest buildings there are limited accommodations and suburban elevators, with lunch counters and newsboys. Skyscrapers are also earth shakers. Some of them reach 100 feet below the surface, and are useful most of the way down. There is no telling how much higher they will grow, but we may expect some day to see a doctor on the 10th floor recommending a patent on the 17th floor, where the climate is cooler and more salubrious. Skyscrapers are not always beautiful to look at, but they are magnificent to look out of. Europeans who spend their days gazing from the second story of a beautiful building into the rear brick wall of another beautiful building will learn something to their advantage by taking the 10th floor office and looking their morning's mail. It is like doing business on a steam-heated mountain top.
